

Westlaw International – Asia

Getting Started

Course Description

This session will guide you in conducting legal research for Malaysia*, Singapore*, and Hong Kong*, focusing on cases, legislation, commentary, and journals. Our expert trainer will provide step-by-step instructions to help you efficiently navigate and utilize Westlaw's resources. Whether you're new to the platform or looking to enhance your skills, this webinar is designed to support your legal research needs in the Asian context.

**Access to content is subscription dependent.*

By the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- Understand the features, functionality, and navigation of Westlaw International.
- Efficiently search and navigate through cases, legislation, and secondary resources.
- Apply advanced search methods, including using Terms & Connectors, to refine research.
- Stay informed with global news updates and current awareness tools.
- Utilize Client ID and research history for effective tracking and organization.
- Manage folders and utilize My Links for streamlined research management.
- Set up email notifications in the Alerts Centre to stay up to date with legal developments.
- Access and utilize available help and support resources for ongoing assistance.

Session Duration

60 minutes.

Session Delivery Method

Online via Microsoft Teams. Note: The Webinar session allows participants to view the trainer's computer screen. At no time does the trainer access your computer.

Learning Materials

Online help and support materials available from the Training and Support Portal

Training Specialist

The session is facilitated by a Thomson Reuters Training Specialist.

Asia.Trainers@thomsonreuters.com